ihep – international history exchange project

a computer is mounted along with harddisk in a water proofed box on a mast. connected above is an outdoor speaker, below in reach is a box with the microfon and a rugged button. by pressing the button a text can be spoken in the mic and afterwards a random choosen recording can be heard through the speaker. the wiring of the units run inside the mast to protect the cables.

